OLYMPia Wash., Jan. 15.-Caliornin wine men apparenity have lost their fight to have Washington's legislative ratification of the national prohibition amendment submitted to the voters for final approval

As a result, it is thought, the ratcution will stand and Washington will be counted among the states Whose approval of the amendment is necessary to make it effective. The fight of the California men recent count showed that the Call- fice of Secretary of state association failed by 1.668 to get enough signatures on referendum petitions asking that the measure be passed on to the copie. The petitions carried 20,989 names. To secure referendum action 22,657 names were necessary.

The final count ended a fight which began immediately after the close of the last Washington legislature which ratified the amendment . At that time attorneys for the association filed affidavits to invoke referendum action. Secretary of State L. M. Howell refused to file to accommodate several hundred lep the affidavit until directed by the state supreme rourt.
